

ABOUT IPS

The Institute for Pan-African Strategies (Peace – Security – Governance) is a center for the promotion of Peace, Security, Good Governance, Strategic Thinking and continental Unity.

The Institute for Pan-African Strategies (Peace – Security- Governance) emanated from an independent initiative of intellectuals from Africa and the Diaspora and Experts known for their dedication to Africa.

The Institute for Pan-African Strategies (Peace-Security-Governance) is defined as an autonomous structure aimed at valorizing african expertise and contributing to networks of reflection and actions for Africa's Unity and Renaissance.

The Institute for Pan-African Strategies (Peace-Security-Governance) has five departments and three special programs to roll out its activities:

- Department for Peace
- Security Department
- Governance Department
- Department for Strategic Thinking
- Department of Training, Editing, Publishing and Communication

Special Programs

- Program for the promotion of « Women's Leadership » in the search for Peace, Security, and good Governance in Africa;
- Program for the implementation of « Committees of the Elders » for preventive intercessions and mediations in Africa.
- Program for the education and training of the African Youth in the Culture of Peace, the challenge to the conscience of Security, issues of Good Governance, as well as in the promotion of continental unity and respect for human rights

The Institute for Pan-African Strategies (Peace-Security-Governance) will share with and federate networks of partners in all countries of the continent and the Diaspora coupled with international experts to implement its programmes